Lab Instructions - Configure Identity Protection Alerts

1. Under Admin Centers select Azure Active Directory
2. Expand the menu on the left and select Azure Active Directory again
3. Select Security
4. Under Protect, select Identity Protection
5. Under Notify, select Users at risk detected alerts
6. Your options are low, medium, high. Accept High and click on the Included window under Emails sent to th following users
7. Scroll down to view all the members of the Selected Members, then click on Select.
8. Notice the (i) Note that appears on the screen. Click twice on thr (i) icon to make the note disappear.
9. There is a next area at the bottom where you can add additional emails. Notice the notifiation message. Click to the left of that message to makeit disappear.
10. Click on Save, then close the Users at risk detected alerts window.